What's New

This release contains the following new features and enhancements:

- A new configuration parameter, `partitionedCookies`, is added to Screen Recording Service. This parameter adds partitioned cookie to support the upcoming updates to Google Chrome browser related to sharing of third-party cookies. The following options are supported:
 - 0 - disabled (never add the Partitioned cookie attribute)
 - 1 - enabled (always add the Partitioned cookie attribute)
 - 2 - auto (enable the Partitioned cookie attribute conditionally when Chromium version requires it; this is the default)
 - If Chrome/Edge version is 118 or higher, `partitionedCookies` will be enabled.
 - If Chrome/Edge version is lower than 118, `partitionedCookies` will be disabled.
 - For Firefox, `partitionedCookies` will be enabled for all versions.
- (GIR-33082)
